

Talking Points

It's been said about politicians that "the longer they talk the further they get from the truth." That saying rings true not only for politicians, but for propositions as well.

That's one reason why it's so easy to share the "Yes on Prop 102" message with your friends and family. Unlike other political issues of the day, Prop 102 is simple, clear, and easy to understand. It doesn't require a doctoral degree to understand or explain. Here are some recommended "talking points" you can use when explaining Prop 102 to other Arizonans.

- Prop 102 is 20 simple and clear words that define marriage as the union of one man and one woman.
- The best way to know what Prop 102 does is to simply read the language: "Only a union of one man and one woman shall be valid or recognized as a marriage in this state."
- Prop 102 does one thing and one thing only – it defines marriage in Arizona as the union of one man and one woman.

Remember, a large and diverse majority of Arizonans support marriage being defined as the union of one man and one woman. Prop 102 confirms what they already know and believe. One Man. One Woman. That's Marriage.

After all, timeless truths don't require endless explanation.
